Background

Science – stopped in 2009

Writing – stopped in 2011

From 2014-2015:

Introduced GPS tests

New format for maths tests

Reading tests tweaked

Our views on the tests

- Part of picture of assessment
- Keep balance of subjects as much as possible in Year 6
- Prepare pupils well
- Practice for secondary
- Emphasis on achieving best
- Not nothing but not everything!

How are the results of tests used?

- Schools required to report KS2 National Curriculum test results in Maths, Reading, GPS
- Tracking from KS1 to KS2, KS3 and KS4
- Used to track progress of individuals and cohorts
- Judgements of schools

Government View:

- The Key Stage 2 National Curriculum tests are designed to test pupils' knowledge and understanding of specific elements of the Key Stage 2 Programmes of Study. They provide a snapshot of a pupil's attainment at the end of the key stage in Maths and English.

Overview of Tests – this year -

Externally marked:

- Maths (3 parts)
- English Reading
- English Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling (2 parts)

- Examples to view after session

Pupils working above or below level of tests:

- All children are entered for the tests unless working below KS2 level, in which case they are teacher-assessed
- No higher tests – children are assessed as working at greater depth within the standard or achieving a high standard – depends on scaled score
- Extra time
- Readers

Scaled Scores

A pupil's scaled score will be based on their raw score. The raw score is the total number of marks a pupil receives in a test, based on the number of questions they answered correctly. The pupil's raw score will be translated into a scaled score using a conversion table.

A pupil who achieves the national standard will have demonstrated sufficient knowledge in the areas assessed by the tests. This will mean that they are well placed to succeed in the next phase of their education.

The government waits until pupils have taken the tests and the tests have been marked before they set the national standard and the rest of the scale.

Scaled scores are reported to parents. 100 or above is the national standard.

Support for Tests

- In-class support – within lessons day-to-day
- Practice in hall, format, test technique

Maths Test Papers

- Children will sit three papers in maths:
 - Paper 1: arithmetic, 30 minutes
 - Papers 2 and 3: reasoning, 40 minutes per paper
 - Paper 1 will consist of fixed response questions, where children have to give the correct answer to calculations, including long multiplication and division.
 - Papers 2 and 3 will involve a number of question types, including:
 - Multiple choice
 - True or false
 - Constrained questions, e.g. giving the answer to a calculation, drawing a shape or completing a table or chart
 - Less constrained questions, where children will have to explain their approach for solving a problem
 - These questions often require multiple steps in order to reach the answer.

Maths At Home

- Recall facts & Times Tables (TTRS)
- Fluency in number, mental maths skills
- SATS examples from past papers for homework
- Testbase questions
- Problem solving, puzzles

Reading Paper

- The reading test will be a single paper with questions based on three passages of text. Your child will have one hour, including reading time, to complete the test.
- There will be a selection of question types, including:
- Ranking/ordering, e.g. 'Number the events below to show the order in which they happen in the story'
- Labelling, e.g. 'Label the text to show the title of the story'
- Find and copy, e.g. 'Find and copy one word that suggests what the weather is like in the story'
- Short constructed response, e.g. 'What does the bear eat?'
- Open-ended response, e.g. 'Look at the sentence that begins Once upon a time. How does the writer increase the tension throughout this paragraph? Explain fully, referring to the text in your answer.'

Reading Test – how you can help

- Help your child to skim and scan texts to find key words or retrieve information
- Ask questions to check understanding or why the writer has used that particular word?
- Discuss how texts often need us to infer or deduce information. Look at examples, including film.
- Read often, as much as you can, wherever or whenever you can! Build speed, stamina, confidence and fluency. Read easy books too.

English At Home

- Spellings – practise spelling lists at home; discuss rules; read books.
- Handwriting – to support spelling and improve presentation in independent writing
- Writing – read as a writer; look out for conjunctions, punctuation examples, interesting words; write at home too.
- Play word and sentence games at home.
- Build vocabulary by discussing what different words mean – look for synonyms in thesaurus.

Teacher Assessment

Writing and Science are
Teacher Assessed using set
criteria

(See handout)

Writing

- Range of evidence to support Teacher Assessment in books
- Interim Descriptors
- Need to evidence all in order to be assessed as meeting the standard
- Importance of work in books over the year across all areas of curriculum
- By 27th June 2023

Working towards the expected standard

The pupil can:

- write for a range of purposes
- use paragraphs to organise ideas
- in narratives, describe settings and characters
- in non-narrative writing, use simple devices to structure the writing and support the reader (e.g. headings, sub-headings, bullet points)
- use capital letters, full stops, question marks, commas for lists and apostrophes for contraction mostly correctly
- spell correctly most words from the year 3 / year 4 spelling list, and some words from the year 5 / year 6 spelling list*
- write legibly.¹

Working at the expected standard

The pupil can:

- write effectively for a range of purposes and audiences, selecting language that shows good awareness of the reader (e.g. the use of the first person in a diary; direct address in instructions and persuasive writing)
- in narratives, describe settings, characters and atmosphere
- integrate dialogue in narratives to convey character and advance the action
- select vocabulary and grammatical structures that reflect what the writing requires, doing this mostly appropriately (e.g. using contracted forms in dialogues in narrative; using passive verbs to affect how information is presented; using modal verbs to suggest degrees of possibility)
- use a range of devices to build cohesion (e.g. conjunctions, adverbials of time and place, pronouns, synonyms) within and across paragraphs
- use verb tenses consistently and correctly throughout their writing
- use the range of punctuation taught at key stage 2 mostly correctly[^] (e.g. inverted commas and other punctuation to indicate direct speech)
- spell correctly most words from the year 5 / year 6 spelling list,* and use a dictionary to check the spelling of uncommon or more ambitious vocabulary
- maintain legibility in joined handwriting when writing at speed.²

Writing (2)

Working at greater depth

The pupil can:

- write effectively for a range of purposes and audiences, selecting the appropriate form and drawing independently on what they have read as models for their own writing (e.g. literary language, characterisation, structure)
- distinguish between the language of speech and writing³ and choose the appropriate register
- exercise an assured and conscious control over levels of formality, particularly through manipulating grammar and vocabulary to achieve this
- use the range of punctuation taught at key stage 2 correctly (e.g. semi-colons, dashes, colons, hyphens) and, when necessary, use such punctuation precisely to enhance meaning and avoid ambiguity.[^]

[There are no additional statements for spelling or handwriting]
